

AP United States History

---

Federalist Papers and George Washington

- Federalist Paper N°10
  - Solving factions who try to gain influence in government
  - Creating a large republic will give factions less power
  - Insisting to not give the people too much power
    - Preventing the common, uneducated man to have too much power
  - Corroborating the Electoral College, creating a buffer between electoral systems and government
- Bill of Rights
  - Federalists ensured ratification of The Constitution with the Bill of Rights
    - The Anti-Federalists insisted its creation with enumerated rights of the people
  - This document restricts the power of the Government