

AP United States History

Andrew Jackson and Tariff Battles

- Tariff of 1828
 - Supported by Jacksonians to gain votes from farmers in NY, OH, KY
 - South was adamantly against it, since they produce the world's cheapest cotton
- Second Nullification Crisis of 1832
 - Another tariff and in South Carolina that Calhoun opposes
 - Calhoun resigns as Vice President, tells tax collectors to stop collecting taxes
 - Jackson threatens to send 50k troops to South Carolina
 -